Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore, Muzrai, dated 30th May 1912.

READ—

Petition dated the 26th February 1911, from Naranaiengar, Sampathkumarachar and others of Melkote, and subsequent petitions from the same persons and certain others complaining that the Vadagalai people have put on a silver Vadagalai namam contrary to the mamul to the idol of Sri Yoga Narasimhaswami at Melkote, that it is opposed to Shastras to put on a silver namam on the face of the idol, and praying that enquiry may be instituted in the matter and orders passed for the removal of the new namam and for restoration of the old one.

Letter No. 213, dated the 25th November 1911, from the Deputy Commissioner, Mysore District, reporting that the namam put on the idol is the Vadagalai Namam as heretofore, that it weighs 2½ tolas instead of one tola as per Jadatipatti, dated 22nd December 1906, that during the prevalance of plague at Melkote, while the Baravard Parpathegar was on leave, Kasturi Rangachar, a gumasta of the Parakala Matt, was in charge of the duties of the Parpathegar and was not handing over the keys of the temple to the guards, as usual, that therefore the namam should have been got repaired unauthorisedly at his instance, and that there would have been no room for such unauthorised action if the Peshkar had been inspecting the temple frequently.

No. 2933-5—MUZ. 427-10-8, DATED BANGALORE, 30TH MAY 1912.

ORDER THEREON.—The records clearly show that the namam put on the idol was the Vadagalai one, but that it has only been unauthorisedly altered.

2. The person responsible for this unauthorised action should be deprived of the office he holds in the temple and be debarred from being re-employed in a similar capacity. A report of the action taken in this matter should be submitted to the Government early.

3. In the present case the Vadagalai Namam should be allowed to continue and in future where there is no clear proof of either of the namams, a mere "Thilaka" of a single vertical line is preferable and should be adopted.
